C. H. Turner of St. Johnsbury was here Thursday and secured the co-operation of a large number of citizens for the purpose of holding a community Chautauqua in this town next July. Bethel has carried out so many large plans successfully during the past year and a half that it seems probable this large eater-prise will be well carried out.

The Universalist ladies' fair came to a nappy ending last evening when the three-act comedy, "The Runaways," was presented successfully by a well selected and well drilled caste made up of John Noble, Gifman Marshall, Fred E. Burrell, Rev. W. C. Harvey, John T. Batchelder, W. C. Clifford, jr., Miss Jessie Archibald, Miss Mary Cushing, Miss Ruth Warden and Miss Dorothy Cady. Mrs. D. M. Strong won the quilt in the holder sale and then had it auctioned off for the benefit of the fair. A dance followed the play, for which Gilson's orchestra furished the music.

A debate featured the English history period at Whitcomb high school yesterday. Supt. Brackett was present and the disputants were Miss King, Miss Parker, Mr. Hoagland and Mr. Marshall. Cashier E. A. Davis is in southern New Hampshire this week on federal reserve bank business.

HOUSING OF U. S. SOLDIERS On Leave in Paris Is Difficult Problem for Y. M. C. A.

Paris, Dec. 7.—Probably the biggest problem that they Young Men's Christian association has to face in the city of Paris is the housing of soldiers who flock to this city in thousands for 24 to 48 hours' leave. Every American boy who comes to France is eager to see the city of Paris, and the prices of accommodations at the French hotels is beyond the possibilities of their slender purses. The Y. M. C. A. has several hotels where they can go and for one franc a night can get a bed and a shower. Meals are served

The Pavilion is the largest of these hotels, and as an illustration the crowd that flocked in there the other night is a good one to be guided by. The hotel was full to overflowing. The other hotels in the neighborhood on the overflow list were also crowded to the limit. The office also has a long list of rooms which French families will rent to soldiers. The list was exhausted. Yet the men kept pouring in. Seventy-six men took off their coats, rolled them up, made them into pillows and slept on the floor of the "lounge room." At 11 all lights were

KEEP YOUR PLEDGE

The statement below issued by the United States Treasury Department shows that on November 1 Vermont ranked 14th among the States in sales of War Savings Stamps, While Vermont still leads New England and the Eastern States, we are entitled to a much better position if those Vermonters who have pledged to buy stamps will complete their purchases. All the States are making a tremendous effort in the last days of the year to improve their standing and unless Vermont braces up the State will be far down the list on December 31.

Vermont has a proud record so far in all war activities. We mustn't fall down on this last job. Fulfill your pledges at once, buy
